

Forestry field tour

Monday, July 30th

8:00 AM – 3:30 PM

Stitzer, Wisconsin

- 8:00 AM Arrive at Bohlin End-O-Way property, 10854 Robin Lane, Stitzer, WI
- 8:15 – 12:00 Rotation topics: Native plantings & pollinators, oak savanna and buckthorn management, EQIP, erosion management, natural stand management
- 12:00 – 1:00 Lunch
- 1:00 – 3:30 Tour on your own: Maximizing quality in log processing, oak regeneration, BMP's for runoff, monarch butterfly habitat, riparian buffers, managing regeneration from a mother tree

Registration for the field tour is $20 per person. Lunch is provided. Register online or call (765) 583-3501 or email jackson@purdue.edu.

Travel on your own to 10854 Robin Lane, Stitzer, WI (map link) by 8 AM.

Sponsored by Wisconsin and Iowa Chapters of the Walnut Council

This tour is part of the July 30-August 1 national Walnut Council meeting.

See www.walnutcouncil.org for further meeting information.